Family Tree Maker 2012

Cost: $49 6-hours
March 12 & 14, Monday/Wednesday 6-9 p.m.
Instructor: Jean McGowan

You have your family tree traced and you are ready to organize it. Now what do you do? You put it on the computer to preserve your research and family history for generations to come. In this class, you will take a "walk through time" utilizing Family Tree Maker software. Not only will it allow you to organize all of your research, you will be able to incorporate newspaper clippings, can pictures, and gather ideas about how to save this work for posterity. Additionally, you will discuss proper backup procedures so that future generations can enjoy your work as well as become more proficient at transferring or sharing information from Family Tree Maker User to Users. This course is for the beginner to avid users of Family Tree Maker software. This class meets at the Warren Forest Higher Education Council. Maximum 12.

Archiving Family Records Locally

Cost: $7 2-hours
March 20 Tuesday 1-3 p.m.
Instructor: Michelle Gray/Carl Wolf/Penny Wolbold
