An advertisement for ed2go courses. It features a woman sitting at a desk with a laptop, looking at the camera. The background is a blurred outdoor scene with greenery. The text "Convenient, Affordable, and Effective." is written in a large, bold, black font. Below it, the text "Take ed2go courses anywhere and when it's most convenient for you." is written in a smaller, black font. To the right of this text, there are three bullet points: "Each ed2go course comes equipped with a patient and caring instructor, lively discussions with your fellow students, and plenty of practical information that you can put to immediate use.", "We offer you hundreds of engaging online courses for adults, covering every topic from SAT Test Preparation to Web Design.", and "Each ed2go course comes equipped with a patient and caring instructor, lively discussions with your fellow students, and plenty of practical information that you can put to immediate use." I Have a Question!

Q. Do I need to attend all six sessions?

A. At Hi-Ed, we realize students are busy and may have other activities that require their participation during the six-week course. The more SAT Prep sessions the student attends, they will gain more practice experience, test taking tips, and confidence to achieve the desired results.

Why is SAT Preparation Important?

“Practice makes perfect.” This phrase holds a great amount of truth for the SAT. You already know that practice improves your performance in sports, music, and academics. Practicing for the SAT is equally important to ensure you will perform your best on test day.

Standardized tests are the single component that all college applicants have in common. Achieving a great SAT score is essential to the admissions process. In fact, the SAT is the primary factor in determining your acceptance at many colleges, and what scholarships you may be eligible to receive. For better or worse, your SAT score will have a tremendous impact on your future.
