

EDINBORO UNIVERSITY

CONTINUING EDUCATION

The Continuing Education division offers:

Expert instructors

Hundreds of courses!

Opportunities to learn from the comfort of your home!

Affordable courses!

Convenient for everyone!

You'll find just what you're looking for!

Computer Skills

Manufacturing & Technical Classes

Personal Enrichment

Workforce Development

Various Courses offered at all four campuses

EDINBORO ERIE MEADVILLE ONLINE

PA Keys Approved Child Care Training Classes

January, February & March 2012

Play – Why is it Important? K2:C3:17 Wednesday, January 25, 2012, 5:30-8:30 pm
Participants will learn how to use play in the classroom and why it is important for children.
Location: Edinboro University in Erie – The Porreco Center – Por 5; Instructor: Tina Carter

How Do I Get My Parents Involved? K3:C1:32 Wednesday, February 29, 2012, 5:30-8:30 pm
Participants will learn and leave with ideas on involving parents and families in the classroom.
Location: Edinboro University in Erie – The Porreco Center – Por 5; Instructor: Dr. Gae Anderson-Miller

Get Fit with a Friend K7:C3:79 Wednesday, March 7, 2012, 5:30-8:30 pm
Participants will receive tips and ideas on getting school age children excited about being active and fit.
Location: Edinboro University Main Campus, Miller 100; Instructor: Tina Carter

Social-Emotional Relationships in the Classroom K1:C1:32 Sat., March 24, 2012, 9:00-Noon
Helping children grow socially and emotionally means taking a look at the relationships in your center. Relationships produce emotions, thoughts, and special meanings. In this session, we will take a look at the importance of social-emotional relationships in the classroom.
Location: Edinboro University in Erie – The Porreco Center – Por 5; Instructor: Tina Carter

All classes: $10 (an additional $30 each for Act 48 hours and CEUs)

Great things happen here!

Call 814-732-2544 or discover more and register at <http://ce.edinboro.edu>

Dr. James Moran, Interim President One of the 14 universities in Pennsylvania's State System of Higher Education

